Day 2 Orang Utan – Annah Rais Bidayuh Longhouse

(B/L)

After breakfast, we drive down to the Semenggoh Orang Utan Rehabilitation Centre which takes approximately 30 minutes. At the centre we take a short hike through the dipterocarp forest. Here, young orang utans are trained to survive in the wild. These orang utans are either orphaned or rescued from captivity. When they have sufficient skills to survive in the wild, the orang utans are released into the wild forest. During the feeding time, visitors can watch their skillful movement and to observe their behavior and characteristics. Watching these charming and entertaining orang utans during feeding time is a sheer delight. Most importantly, spot their delicate nests and our experience tour guide will elaborate more of this special primate called "Man of the forest". Other animals found in the centre are the gibbons and honey bears.

Our journey continues to Annah Rais Bidayuh Longhouse. A visit to Sarawak is never complete until you have been to its famous longhouse. Typical a longhouse is terraced street of separate rooms covered by only one roof. Each family lives in its separate room known as 'bilik' under the authority of the headman nown as 'tuai rumah'). Upon arrival, visitors can see communal activities on the veranda known as 'ruai' such as rice pounding and winnowing. Other unique handicrafts like bamboo carving and mat weaving can also be seen here. The Bidayuhs are friendly people and if you are lucky, they might invite you to visit their room. Lunch is served at local restaurant. Our tour for the day ends with a transfer back to hotel for overnight stay.
